

A photograph of a classroom where two children in the foreground are holding up their 'Pumpkin Patch' artwork. The child on the left holds a drawing with a green top section, a blue bottom section, and a large black star in the center. The child on the right holds a drawing with a blue top section and a yellow sun in the center. In the background, other children are visible at their desks, and a teacher is standing near a door. The text 'Final documentation Pumpkin Patch 2026' is overlaid on the right side of the image.
